

PTO Meeting

January 5, 2009

Meeting began at 6:35p.m.

Present:

Holly Genaw, Cindy Hoffman, Beth Baumia, Marybeth Pottorff, Meredith Steinmetz, Kristin Conner.

Approval of Minutes:

Motion made by Holly and seconded by Marybeth to accept minutes.

Motion passed.

Treasurer's Report:

Currently we have approximately $9000.00 in the bank right now.

Book Fair:

A chairperson is needed for the next Book Fair scheduled to be at the school from March 4 to March 16.

Bingo for Books:

Chaired by Meredith Steinmetz. Date is set for Friday, January 30th. A $1.00 admission will be charged. Pizza and pop/water will be available to purchase. Volunteers are needed to sell pizza, pop raffle tickets and smencils. A form will be sent home. Raffle tickets will be available to purchase to win donated books etc.

Market Day:

Next delivery day is January 26. Volunteers are still needed for sorting and packing items.

Assembly: Dollars and Sense

Date of assembly is January 21 at 10:00 a.m. Assembly is about money management.

Science Fair:

Date not set at present. Student could win a chance to attend space camp. (4th-5th grades)

Piston's assembly:

Detroit Pistons will be coming to the school on February 20th. The game scheduled for the school to attend is set for March 20th.

Campbell's Soup labels:

Register Kroger card and use when purchasing Campbell's items will give the school extra points.

Read-a-thon:

Holly Genaw will chair event. Read-a-thon is scheduled to start in March.

Valentine Candy grams:

They will be sold at lunch time. A note will go home for parents to purchase candy grams for students.

Fundraiser for spring:

Brochures handed out to those present. Vote was taken and Yankee Candle won vote to be spring fundraiser.

Principal Comments: Mrs. Hoffman

Santa night was a great family fun night. A special thanks to Mr. Pottorff for being Santa.

Teacher Comments: Mrs. Steinmetz

Report cards will be going home soon. An idea for encouraging more participation at PTO meetings was to have students present something during the meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:45p.m.